

Beatrice M. Mady's works can be viewed at the Dayton Art Institute, Museum of Friends and Drew University Museum, and in corporate collections; Pfizer, Ortho Dermatological, Janssen Pharmaceutica, Bristol-Meyers Squibb, Johnson and Johnson, Sydney and Francis Lewis Foundation, Arenol Chemical Corporation, Capital Health Medical Center, The Provident Bank of NJ. She was a recipient of a Ford Foundation Grant, a NJ State Council on the Arts Grant and seven Kenny Grants. Mady exhibits her work in solo and groups exhibitions.

A Professor, Graphic Arts Coordinator and Gallery Director at Saint Peter's University in Jersey City, NJ, she received a M.F.A. in painting from Pratt Institute and a B.F.A. from the University of Dayton. Her residence and studio are in Jersey City, NJ.

Beatrice M. Mady, 2022